Media Release

1 February 2010

Who says there's no such thing as a free lunch?

Eastern Business Park welcomes MIDSHIRE CATERING, the new operators of the Eastern Business Park Café. Midshire Catering are passionate about what they do. They provide great food, prepared and served by enthusiastic people, delivering an innovative and personal service.

John Hughes, Operations Director for Midshire Catering launched a competition to WIN a two course meal in The Eastern Business Park Café for 4 people! To win this prize all the 1300 tenants at Eastern Business Park need to do is to guess how many steps are recorded on George Parker's (The Property and Facilities Manager) pedometer, between 1st and 26th February whilst working at Eastern Business Park.

Robert Hitchins Limited said "The competition is a great way for the tenants to get to know George Parker as he and his wife Chris only moved to Wales at the end of last year from Scotland. George and Chris have undergone extensive Welsh training by watching all the back episodes of "Gavin and Stacey"! George brings with him immense knowledge and expertise in facilities management; he ensures that the tenants and their staff have a pleasant environment, with all the required facilities, to conduct their business."

Tony Broadribb, Sales Director, for Midshire Catering said "Users of the Eastern Business Park Café can look forward to good quality meals at a reasonable price, using quality fresh food as the raw ingredient, sourced from local suppliers to deliver the best value to the patrons of the restaurant. There are a number of things to look forward to from Midshire Catering:

- New coffee offer, enjoy the sight sound and aroma of Segafredo, real Italian espresso barista hand crafted coffee
- Buy 7 cups of coffee, tea or hot chocolate and get the 8th free
- Improved range of tray bakes cakes, muffins, cookies and pastries
- Enhanced range of 'Grab and Go' products

- Homemade soup from the Deli bar
- Healthy eating options will always be available and special diets catered for
- Corporate catering on request
