Creative Print firm comes to Bonds Mill

Mr Alex Ponting, has recently moved into his own print studio at Bonds Mill, where he will mostly be working with traditional, hand-driven printmaking processes, especially screen printing, if you would like him to design, print or design and print something for you, just get in touch www.alexanderponting.com

He commented: "The space is ideal for my business and as a one man firm it is nice to be on an estate within an established business community."

Alex Ponting studied Art and Design at Stroud College, Gloucestershire. After two years, he left Stroud College with lots of sketchbooks and a Foundation Diploma in Art and Design. He moved to Leeds and joined the BA(Hons) Graphic Design course at Leeds College of Art. Having graduated, Alex has returned to the Cotwolds, and continues to design and produce his own work.
