Sherlock investigates Eastern Business Park

Eastern Business Park Limited (a wholly owned subsidiary of Robert Hitchins Limited) is the location for the filming of a second series of the award winning BBC Sherlock series which burst onto our TV screens last year.

We were approached by Hartswood a month ago looking for a building that could be made to resemble Scotland Yard and the timing was right as the property is currently under going a major refurbishment. Co-created by Steven Moffat and Mark Gatiss, Sherlock stars Benedict Cumberbatch as the new Sherlock Holmes and Martin Freeman as his loyal friend, Doctor John Watson. Rupert Graves plays Inspector Lestrade and Una Stubbs as Mrs Hudson, their long-suffering housekeeper.

The iconic details from Conan Doyle's original books remain - they live at the same address of 221b Baker Street, have the same names and, somewhere out there, Moriarty is waiting for them. Steven Moffat says: "Conan Doyle's stories were never about frock coats and gas light; they're about brilliant detection, dreadful villains and blood-curdling crimes - and frankly, to hell with the crinoline. Other detectives have cases, Sherlock Holmes has adventures, and that's what matters."

Tenants at Eastern Business Park include Scottish & Southern Energy, Taylor Wimpey, JD Hull, Avaya, E-on UK, Adtrader, Guide Dogs for the Blind and Laing O'Rourke with further space available in small suites of 1,000 sq.ft upwards to whole wings of 10,000 sq.ft+.

On site facilities include fitness suite, restaurant, crèche and conference centre.
