Media Release

25 January 2010

Bonds Mill is picture perfect

Robert Hitchins Limited is delighted to announce that Concept Photography, an independent photography company, will shortly open its doors at the Bonds Mill Estate in Stroud.

Concept Photography provides a wide range of photography services from portrait photography to wedding and event photography. They will use the new premises at Bonds Mill as a photography studio.

Landlord Bonds Mill Estates said “We are creating a really diverse business community at Bonds Mill. The flexibility of the units means that they are suitable for a range of businesses from artists, photographers, printers to archive specialists. The units can be as large or as small as you want, which means we can accommodate both independent family businesses as well as national companies.”

Mark Griffiths, owner of Concept Photography said: “We are an independent local company and pride ourselves in being able to offer our clients a bespoke and personal service. Our new studio will be used to offer a wide range of portrait photos: from family photographs to business portraits. We are already taking bookings and people can contact us via our website www.conceptphotography.org.”
