Helping to Support complex needs in the community

Robert Hitchins Limited are delighted to welcome Parallel Options to the thriving business community at Avionics House, Kingsway Business Park, taking the largest office space 2,431 sq ft, on a new 10 year lease.

Parallel Options are an established provider of supported living and domiciliary care for vulnerable adults with complex needs who have a learning disability, and/or mental health needs.

Their specialist care packages offer clients the chance to live independently in their own home within the community where they can be supported both day and night by a dedicated and specialist team of support workers. Many of their clients are vulnerable and have complex, individual needs.

Barbara Scandrett newly appointed CEO of the Parallel Options Group said "I am delighted to take this first step in developing the company. With my new management team I intent to develop the services of Parallel Options and our new care service company Assisted Living".

"This is the first step to developing client led services appropriate to people's needs and we are pleased to have found such suitable office facilities in the geographical area where our clients are at present based. The company is expanding to work in Exeter and Birmingham and having our head office in Gloucester is very convenient."

Avionics House is the ideal location for Parallel Option's new headquarters, offering good quality office space at very reasonable rents. It has excellent transport links via the A38 into the city centre and is also just two miles from the M5, enabling Parallel Options to easily reach their clients in the rest of the county, Birmingham and the South West. Located alongside the arterial A38 it also provides views of the attractive Gloucestershire countryside.

There are further suites available at Avionics House, Kingsway Business Park.
