Stroud communications specialist announces relocation to Stonehouse Park

On behalf of developer Robert Hitchins Limited, property consultants Alder King have secured a new tenant for waterside office development, Stonehouse Park in Stonehouse, Gloucestershire.

Unit 602, a 5,700 sq ft office building constructed during the third phase of development at the office park was let to Club Communications Ltd., on a new ten year lease.

Club Communications Ltd., established in 1997, supplies telecommunications resellers with voice billing, calls, connectivity and IP services, enabling them to offer an effective and reliable package to their customers.

Mark Durand, Senior Development Surveyor at Robert Hitchins Limited commented; "Club Communications Ltd., recently acquired by the Nine Telecom Group Ltd., are a very successful local business and needed new premises to accommodate their recent expansion and to have room for further growth. The strong reputation of Stonehouse Park and its idyllic waterside location proved perfect for the company and will provide them with the prestigious new premises they require."

Started in 2006, Stonehouse Park has quickly become the principle business park in the area comprising a range of high quality office buildings set in an attractive waterside setting close to the M5 (J13).

Alder King is now marketing the final building at phase 3, Unit 702, which offers 1,700 to 3,425 sq ft of high quality office space.
